

A BIRTHDAY WISH

With each new day may you find:

The birds singing just a bit prettier,
The flowers smelling just a bit sweeter,
The sun shining bright and feeling
Warm---even on a cloudy day.
The news you hear a bit nicer,
The steps you take a bit easier,
The chores you do a little less like work.
The gossip a little bit more funny
A song to sing hum which brings back sweet memories.
A little joy in life's bittersweet journey.
And may you find how very much
We love and celebrate YOU.

Happy Birthday:

Love Jim
